

Security Council For Peace

Four Powers Today Announce Tentative and Incomplete Plan

By John M. Hightower

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—(P)—A detailed but incomplete plan for maintaining peace by force was presented to the world today by the United States, Britain, China and Russia, and President Roosevelt asserted the task of designing the future security of the world "has been well begun."

The organization of the world to preserve peace and security, Mr. Roosevelt said in a statement, represents "a major objective for which this war is being fought, and as such, it inspires the highest hopes of the millions of fathers and mothers whose sons and daughters are engaged in the terrible struggle and suffering of war."

The security organization calls for converting the war born United Nations into a permanent peace organization backed by powerful armed forces, including special air detachments capable of lightning blows against any future aggressors.

Early Four Power Meeting

Announcement of its tentative details came as United Nations diplomats foresaw the possibility of an early four-power meeting "at the highest level" to tighten war-end relations and to complete the security organization's blueprint.

As drawn, it would consist of a general assembly of all "peace loving states," a security council of 11 nations which would have final authority on all uses of force; an economic and social council to work out the world's economic ills, and an international court of justice.

The general assembly, the security council, and the economic and social council each would have a president but the greatest prestige obviously would attach to the presidency of the security council, whose members would include permanently the "Big Four" and, "in due course," France.

Forces to back up the decisions of the council, when peaceful methods fail, would be made available "on its call" by member nations of the organization. The air force detachments, however, would be "held immediately available" for action.

Means to be Decided

It was said on high authority that the means by which the United States would furnish its share of forces remain to be decided, but the administrative branch is expected to press for a blanket authorization to obviate the necessity of asking congressional authority each time forces were to be used. In his statement Mr. Roosevelt said "aggressors like Hitler and the Japanese war-lords organize for years for the day when they can launch their evil strength against weaker nations devoted to their peaceful pursuits."

"This time," he continued, "we have been determined first to defeat the enemy, assure that he shall never again be in position to plunge the world into war and then to so organize the peace-loving nations that they may, through unity of desire, unity of will, and unity of strength, be in position to assure that no other would be aggressor or conqueror shall even get started."

Air Medal to Sgt. Farnsworth

AN EIGHTH AIR FORCE BOMBER STATION IN ENGLAND—Tech. Sgt. John M. Farnsworth has been awarded the Air Medal for meritorious achievement in aerial combat.

Sgt. Farnsworth, engineer and top turret gunner on the famous B-17 Flying Fortress, "Old Miss Destroyer," has completed 12 bombing missions over Germany and in support of the fighting fronts in France.

Prior to his entrance into the AF on July 3, 1942, Sgt. Farnsworth was employed by the Emerson Electric company at St. Louis, Mo. He has been serving in the European theater of operations since July 14, 1944.

Died Sunday

Wendell Lewis Wilkie, Republican candidate for president in 1940, died early Sunday morning in New York. He contracted a streptococcal throat last Wednesday which affected his heart muscles. Death resulted from coronary thrombosis.

Presidential Candidate In 1940 Dies

Funeral of Wendell L. Wilkie Will Be Held Tuesday

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—

(P)—The body of Wendell L. Wilkie, whose death yesterday brought messages of sympathy from many parts of the "one world" in which he took such a vital interest, will lie in state at the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church from 2 p. m. today until funeral services at 3 p. m. tomorrow.

The man who polled 22,333,801 votes for president in 1940, when he was the Republican candidate, died at 2:20 a. m. yesterday at Unknown in political circles until overnight he skyrocketed to fame as a presidential candidate four years ago, Wendell L. Wilkie demonstrated his magnetic personality by amassing the largest popular vote ever given a Republican presidential candidate.

While discussing Mr. Wilkie's untimely death, many have naturally asked who was his running mate in the 1940 campaign. Few remember. Numerous local Republican and Democratic leaders could not supply the answer.

Mr. Wilkie's running mate was Senator Charles L. McNary, of Oregon.

Lenox Hill hospital, which he entered September 6 for a rest and physical checkup.

He contracted a streptococcal throat infection last Wednesday which affected the heart muscles. Death resulted from coronary thrombosis.

The public will be permitted to view the body at the church from 2 p. m. until midnight.

His family said the body of the 52-year-old former public utility executive would be sent to Rushville, Ind., where burial will be in the family plot. The date of burial will be determined by the return of Mr. Wilkie's son, Lieut. (J. G.) Philip Wilkie, USNR, now on convoy duty in the Atlantic. Thousands of messages of sympathy deluged the family. President Roosevelt said:

Forthright American

"The nation will long remember Wendell Wilkie as a forthright American. Earnest, honest, whole souled, he also had tremendous courage. This courage which was his dominating trait prompted him more than once to stand alone and to challenge the wisdom of counsels taken by powerful interests within his own party. In this hour of grave crisis the country loses a great citizen through his untimely death."

Governor Thomas E. Dewey, Republican presidential nominee, commented:

"His death will be mourned throughout the world. A forceful and courageous man, he made a notable contribution to the political and philosophical discussions of these critical times. His passing is a loss not only to the Republican party but to all of us Americans of both parties who shared his faith in representative government and his earnest hopes for world peace."

Question Unanswered

Mr. Wilkie's death left without a definite answer one of the most questions of the 1944 presidential campaign—which candidate, if either, he intended to endorse.

The Blue network last night quoted Henry R. Luce, editor of Time and Life, as saying Mr. (Please turn to page 3 column 4)

Cardinals Series Champs

Temperature 60 In St. Louis; Crowd of 30,000 In Grandstands

By Jack Hand

SPORTSMAN'S PARK ST. LOUIS, Oct. 9.—(P)—The Cardinals won their second World Series in three years today, defeating the Browns, 3 to 1, on the three-hit pitching of Max Lanier and Teddy Wilks.

By Orlo Robertson
SPORTSMAN'S PARK ST. LOUIS, Oct. 9.—(P)—Not more than 30,000 fans were in the stands today as the Cards and the Browns met in the sixth game of the World Series with the National League champions having a chance to close out the classic.

The temperature was in the neighborhood of 60 degrees. Billy Southworth called on Max Lanier, a southpaw, to put on the clincher. He was opposed by Nelson Potter. Both pitchers started the second game, won by the Cards, but were not around at the finish. The only shift in the lineups was the sending of Chet Laabs to left field for the Browns in place of Al Zarilla.

Starting lineups:

Browns—Gutteridge, 2b. Litwhiler, lf. Kreevich, cf. Hopp, cf. Moore, rf. Musial, rf. Stephens, ss. W. Cooper, c. Laabs, 1b. Kurovski, 3b. McQuinn, 1b. Christman, 3b. Marion, ss. Hayworth, c. Verban, 2b. Potter, p. Lanier, p.

Umpires—McGowan (AL) plate; Dunn (NL) 1b; Phipps (AL) 2b; Sears (NL) 3b.

First Inning:

BROWNS—Gutteridge flied to Sanders. Kreevich went down swinging. Moore looked at a third strike.

CARDINALS

—Litwhiler, fanned. Hopp flied to Gutteridge. Gutteridge tossed out Musial.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Second Inning

BROWNS—Stephens swung at a third strike. Laabs tripled to center. McQuinn singled through second scoring Laabs. Christman flied to Hopp. Hayworth also flied to Hopp.

One run, two hits, no errors, one left.

CARDINALS—Stephens made a leaping catch of Cooper's liner. Gutteridge took Sanders' fly. Kurovski singled off Christman's glove. Kurovski was trapped between first and second.

No runs, one hit, no errors, none left.

Third Inning:

BROWNS—Potter looked at a third strike. It was the 44th strikeout of the series by the Cardinals hurlers, tying the six game series record set by the Athletics against the Giants in 1911. Musial made a great running catch of Gutteridge's foul in deep right. Kreevich doubled to center. Hopp got his hand on the ball after a long run but was unable to hold it. Moore walked. Stephens forced Moore. Marion to Verban.

No runs, one hit, no errors, two left.

CARDINALS—Christman tossed out Marion. Verban singled. Lanier singled. Kreevich got his hands on the ball but couldn't hold it. Verban pulled up at second. Litwhiler struck out for the second straight time. Hopp also struck out.

No runs, two hits, no errors, two left.

Fourth Inning:

BROWNS—Laabs walked. McQuinn sacrificed. Lanier to Sanders. Verban threw out Christman. Laabs going to third. Hayworth was intentionally passed. Potter grounded out to Verban.

No runs, no hits, no errors, two left.

CARDINALS—Musial flied to Kreevich. Cooper walked for the first base on balls given up by Potter. Sanders singled, sending Cooper to third. Kurovski hit to Stephens who made a bad throw to Gutteridge at second for an error. Cooper scoring. Sanders held up at second. Marion fouled to Laabs. Verban singled, scoring Sanders. Lanier singled, scoring Kurovski and sending Verban to second. That was all for Potter.

Comic Mascot

No wonder Denny Galehouse is such a tough pitcher to beat. He has a lucky mascot in Alley Oop. V. T. Hamlin's famous comic strip caveman, Galehouse, old friend of Hamlin and a loyal Alley Oop fan, is pictured holding one of a series of Alley Oop "good luck" cards, most of which are carried by men in the armed forces.

U. S. Warships Bombard Tiny Marcus Island

Gunfire Was Deliberate and Destructive

By Charles H. McMurtry

U. S. PACIFIC FLEET HEADQUARTERS, Pearl Harbor, Oct. 9.—(P)—Big guns of American warships bombarded tiny Marcus Island, one of Japan's most important eastern outposts, all day yesterday (U. S. date). Adm. Chester W. Nimitz announced in a surprise communique at 2 a. m. today.

The heavy units from Adm. William F. Halsey's Third fleet silenced "the greater part of the coast defense batteries" and inflicted "considerable damage" on shore defenses and installations.

It was the fourth attack by Fleet forces on the tiny island 1135 miles southwest of Tokyo. The gunfire was "deliberate and destructive." Buildings were hit and fire started. Surprisingly there was no mention of participation by carrier planes, either by Admiral Nimitz or by radio Tokyo which earlier had hinted that battleships with their 16-inch guns joined in the bombardment.

No Aerial Opposition

More surprising still, Admiral Nimitz' communique did not mention any aerial opposition. Nor did radio Tokyo.

But Marcus, which should be the Japanese most important observation post in that area of the Pacific, undoubtedly is feeling deeply her severe plane losses under repeated crushing aerial defeats in the central and western Pacific.

Vice Adm. Marc A. Mitscher's carrier forces operating with Admiral Raymond A. Spruance's Fifth fleet destroyed more than 1,200 enemy airplanes in the Marianas operations and the Philippines carrier force destroyed more than 1,100 in repeated thrusts on the Philippines, Bonins and Palau.

Tokyo admittedly is preparing for a tight fight-to-the-death defense of the homeland and thus is forced to base a majority of its planes in Japan, Formosa and China.

Don't Fail the Red Cross Blood Bank. Call Now

The Red Cross Blood Bank opened today at the Elks club, Fourth street and Kentucky avenue, far short of the needed number of donors and an appeal is being made to the citizens of Pettis county to make their appointments at once by calling telephone NUMBER 130.

Tuesday will be Missouri Pacific day and the required number of registrations have been made, but Wednesday, Thursday and Friday are very low.

Many of the servicemen of the Sedalia Army Air Field will come to Sedalia Thursday to give their blood and the civilians should feel it their duty to do their share, too.

Many of the Sedalia boys who have been wounded have written home the story of how their lives have been saved by blood plasma, and many more will return home again if those at home do not fail them in their fight. Plasma, your blood, will bring them home alive.

The desserts during the week will be furnished by surrounding towns. Tuesday Green Ridge will furnish angel food cake and whipped cream; Wednesday LaMonte will give apple pie; Thursday Hughesville will have devil's food cake and Friday Houstonia will furnish fruit pie.

Believe Wilkie Was for Dewey

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 9.—(P)—Belief that Wendell Wilkie would have "come out in favor of Governor Dewey" was expressed here today by his elder brother, H. Fred Wilkie, vice president of Joseph E. Seagram & Sons Co. "I think there is no question as to where he would have stood," said the distillery executive. "He felt that neither party was meeting the issues squarely. He kept trying to put pressure on both of them to meet this issue."

Fred Wilkie, himself a Dewey supporter, said "my brother was extremely sensitive to everything that went on."

Surviving besides his parents are the following brothers and sisters: Pvt. Thomas L. Crain, in the army stationed somewhere in Italy; Johnnie Crain and Miss Bonnie Crain of the home, and Mrs. Ray Cornell, 924 South Kentucky avenue.

Pvt. Crain, known to many of his friends as "Joe," was an employee of the Missouri Pacific railroad before entering service.

U. S. First Army Is Reported Fighting Within Aachen After Sending Patrols to Garrison

TODAY on the Warfronts

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, AEF, Oct. 9.—(P)—Canadian and British troops who made an amphibious landing early today on the artificial island at the southern tip of the Schelde estuary have made "very satisfactory progress," it was announced officially tonight.

MOSCOW, Oct. 9.—(P)—Prime Minister Churchill and Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden arrived in Moscow today for conferences with Marshal Joseph Stalin and Foreign Commissar Vyacheslav Molotov.

STOCKHOLM, Oct. 9.—(P)—Telephone communications between Stockholm and Berlin still were broken off today, more than 24 hours after they first were cut.

Telephone communication was impossible throughout Sunday between Stockholm and Berlin and Hamburg.

No confirmation could be found for a rumor printed in the Stockholm Tidningen of a new officers' revolt in Germany. The newspaper based its story on a report that an SS police general had been named commander of Warsaw army units of the German army.

Bomb Through Heavy Clouds

LONDON, Oct. 9.—(P)—Another great armada of 2,000 American planes resuming the battering of Germany after the hardest blows of the war over the week end, soared deep into the Reich today and attacked military objectives in the Schweinfurt, Coblenz and Mainz areas.

The three-sided raid was carried out by approximately 1,100 Fortresses and Liberators, escorted by 900 fighters of both the Eighth and Ninth air forces.

The bombers encountered very bad weather over the targets and bombing was done through heavy clouds.

Schweinfurt is the home of several vital Nazi war industries, including a large aircraft assembly plant, and it was in this vicinity that many of the great air battles of the war were fought. Coblenz and Mainz are key communications centers on the Rhine.

Bad weather curtailed other air activities today, but RAF Mosquitos and Beaufighters that attacked a German convoy off the Norwegian coast reported the sinking of two merchant ships and hits on several escort vessels.

Despite murky weather that grounded many planes Sunday, a record number of 10,000 Allied planes pounded Germany and Holland over the week end.

Goes By Plane To See Cousin

F. Oswald, a farmer who lives north of Sedalia, in the Hughesville neighborhood, believes it is a small world, and he has reasons for his belief.

Mr. Oswald has a cousin who was seriously wounded in the Pacific, who has been brought back to the states and is in a hospital at Topeka, Kas.

Friday Mr. Oswald sought the aid of Jack Funk, manager of the Sedalia Municipal Airport, asking him to take him to Topeka, by plane.

They left the airport about 11:00 o'clock in the morning, arrived in Topeka 12:45 o'clock in the afternoon, and Mr. Oswald surprised his cousin by walking in on him.

Mr. Funk and his passenger left Topeka in the late afternoon and arrived in Sedalia between 5:00 and 6:00 o'clock.

Mr. Oswald was able to do all the necessary farm work before he left his home, then returned in time for the evening chores. His cousin was very happy and surprised to see him.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—(P)—Russian troops in Hungary were fighting within 56 miles of Budapest, the capital, Col. Ernst von Kammer, German news agency military commentator, said today in a broadcast heard in London.

WITH THE U. S. FIRST ARMY, Oct. 9.—(P)—Three times the Germans counterattacked on Crucifix Hill north-east of Aachen today in a desperate effort to break the pincers slowly throttling Aachen, but each time the doughboys hurled them back.

The German losses were heavy.

ROME, Oct. 9.—(P)—German forces were reported preparing to evacuate Athens today as British troops, racing virtually unopposed across the Peloponnese, neared the southern entrance to the Isthmus of Corinth, gateway to northern Greece.

ROME, Oct. 9.—(P)—American troops advanced nearly two miles more along the main road north to Bologna, bringing them within 10 miles of that major communications center of the Po Valley, Allied headquarters announced today.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—(P)—The multiplied blows of Lt. Gen. Courtney H. Hodges' First Army threatened a 20-mile-wide break through toward Cologne and Dusseldorf today as American fighting men pinched the Aachen escape gap to four miles or less.

They were reported fighting within Aachen itself after sending patrols and small armored task forces to fell out the garrison, which possibly had been reduced to only 1,500 last ditch SS guards.

To the south, the Seventh army moved to within eight miles of Belfort in the strategic mountain gap fringing Switzerland and pounded that town's outer defenses with shell fire.

To the north Canadian forces staged a bold amphibious stroke in the rear of an isolated garrison of 5,000 Nazis holding on to a small pocket among the canals and dikes south of the Schelde, and landed just east of the small village of Hoofdplaet, 33 miles west of Antwerp.

The landing, made before daylight, was aimed at the relief of a small Canadian bridgehead across the Leopold canal, established three days ago with a flamethrower barrage but beaten back to a desperate position by determined German counterattacks.

GOP standard bearer. Enthusiastic Republican Representative Karl Mundt of South Dakota remarked that when he arrived in London, early in September, he needed a magnifying glass to find any reference to Dewey — always referred to by the British as "Governor Tom Dewey."

However, the challenger's space in the London press gradually increased during September, culminating in double column headlines on the front pages the night after his Oklahoma City speech.

Chatting one day with a member of the British house of commons, Congressman Mundt was asked about Dewey's chances. He replied that he thought they were excellent and that Dewey might very well go into the White House next year. The member of parliament, off guard answered: "What a pity."

Mundt mentioned the incident later to Churchill's minister of information, Brendan Bracken, who apologized:

"I thought we had them better trained than that."

Parliament Notes Congress

An important result of the U. S. political uncertainty is the determination on the part of the British government to work with this country on the legislative as well as the executive level. The British are becoming more and more aware of the importance of the American congress, admit they should never have overlooked it after they saw the trouncing Wilson got after the last armistice.

While observing the British parliament, Mundt heard a speech by Lord Braithwaite, author of a recent bill inviting American congressmen to England as official guests, call for much closer relations between parliament and congress.

"Our international friendship," said Lord Braithwaite, "cannot be permitted to depend on the slender reed of affection between two individuals separated by a mighty ocean."

Good Neighbors Provide Coffee

The backstage story in regard to the near threat of coffee rationing is that the Good Neighbor policy paid dividends last month. Brazilian friendship enabled us to avert either coffee rationing or a coffee rise in price. American housewives will be in $18,000,000 between now and Christmas because of the Good Neighbor policy.

U. S. retail coffee prices here have been frozen since December, 1941, but the cost of producing coffee in Brazil, Colombia, Salvador and Venezuela has not. Growers there have been clamoring for higher prices.

The government of these four countries have been under constant pressure from powerful coffee interests to get better prices in the United States. In general, the growers of Venezuela, Colombia and Salvador have had partial support from their governments, but the Brazilian government has refused to press for higher prices.

As a result, growers have been tapering off in their acceptance of orders from the USA. Gambling on an early end of the war, they decided to build up stocks for immediate sale to England, Sweden, France and Spain. (Coffee will keep in the bean for as long as five to ten years.)

Jones that we should not raise the price of coffee.

1,000,000 Bags a Month

When brilliant Brazilian Minister of Finance, Souza Costa, was in Washington last July, he guaranteed us a minimum of 1,000,000 bags of Brazilian coffee for each of the four months from September through December. Costa promised extra large shipments from Brazil, risking the extreme anger of Brazilian growers in the interest of U. S. friendship.

Meanwhile, the administration found itself unable to buy coffee for delivery even next year. The Brazilian guarantee is only for the remainder of this year and the American people drink more than 1,000,000 bags a month.

It was at this point that Marvin Jones and Chester Bowles went to assistant President Jimmy Byrnes with their problem. Byrnes advised immediate rationing. He knew that the threat of renewed rationing would cause plenty of worry among the coffee growers.

So OPA sent instructions to its field offices specifying the stamp in book 4 that should be used, and rationing was due to start last Monday. Three days before it was to get under way, the White House got in touch with President Vargas of Brazil.

Vargas, who has been under extreme pressure from the Brazilian growers, said he could not promise to keep them in line any longer.
But he did give assurances that Brazil would live up to its guarantee of 1,000,000 bags a month for this year and that he would try to persuade growers to accept additional orders for next year. On his assurances, the rationing order was rescinded.

Note — This situation, however, cannot last forever. Either the price of coffee must go up or coffee must be rationed sometime this winter.

Be Quick To Treat Bronchitis

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes.

Creomulsion blends beechwood cresote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs.
It contains no narcotics.
No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. (Adv.)

GERMANY WILL TRY IT AGAIN

By Sigrid Schultz

As an American newspaper correspondent in Berlin from 1919 to 1941, Sigrid Schultz saw at first hand the events that led from World War I to World War II. And she saw the behind-the-scenes preparation for the coming "war-in-peace" that she warns may culminate in World War III. This is the story of Germany's plans to win the peace, plans that even now are being put into effect.

VIII

As he wormed his way forward, Hitler was bothered by his inability to launch the huge propaganda campaign of his dream.
He scoured Munich until he found the poet-newspaperman, Dietrich Eckart, who knew all about propaganda. He, too, longed for a Greater Germany and a man who could bring it about. When he saw Hitler entranced by his own vision of himself as a great political leader, the poet Eckart was the first to address him as "mein Fuehrer," my leader.

Dietrich Eckart went to work to improve the grammar, the oratory, and the education of his Fuehrer.
It was an advantage to the newspaperman in the little town of Munich to be close to an intimate of a Black Reichswehr leader who had enough money to procure him a newspaper of his own, as Roehm did. The paper was a weekly by the name of the Voelkischer Beobachter. Hitler bought it a short while later, partly with American dollars loaned to him by his half-American follower, Ernst Hanfstaengel.

Hitler's and Eckart's propaganda campaign worked. By July, 1921, they had succeeded in getting their first hold on a German group outside of Germany, by accepting the name of the Austrian anti-Semitic National Socialist Party. Hitler became its Fuehrer. Most of the original members had either resigned or had accepted minor posts. But Hitler had surrounded himself with friends: the student Rudolf Hess, the poet Dietrich Eckart, the officer Ernst Roehm, the organizer Gregor Strasser.

THE Nazis worked out a Party ritual and Party histrionics, to give the masses the circus performance which the Republic was too proud to provide. Finding bread for the masses, rather than circuses, demanded the Republic's whole attention. While his Storm Troopers paraded, Hitler continued his boring from within, going from one rival faction to the next, picking the members' brains and leaving seeds of ambition and distrust. Watching his success, Captain Roehm took him to General Ludendorff as a potential successor to Kapp.

Hitler had studied everything written or said about Ludendorff.
He appeared to glow with admiration for "the greatest man in the Fatherland." Hitler's awkwardness and shyness won both the general and his wife.

Hitler first attempted open attack on a big scale in November, 1923, when he ordered his henchmen to seize power and compelled General Ludendorff to support him in the crisis, using him as a bludgeon against his friends.

Ludendorff never recovered the prestige lost during the Beer Hall Putsch and the subsequent trial.
His increasing racial fanaticism further weakened him, until many observers forgot the tremendous work he had done to entrench his militaristic and industrialist associates in impregnable positions.

But Hitler gained by both the Beer Hall Putsch and the subsequent trial. True enough, the Putsch had failed, but it also removed Ludendorff, his potential rival, into the background. Turning failure into a kind of victory, Hitler utilized the trial to gain not merely national but world-wide publicity.

WHEN the trial took place in 1924, the general situation had quieted down in Germany, following a time when every other day had provided a sensation—the marriage of the Kaiser in his miniature court in Holland, or arson, or a plot, or a minor war which threatened the peace of the world.

To see Gen. Erich von Luden-dorff, one-time quartermaster general of the Imperial German army, forced to defend himself in a Republican court, together with a half-literate agitator, foaming at the mouth in a cold, calculated fury—this spectacle was a sensation indeed. Some of the papers gave it the amplest possible space.
Most of them were democratic organs, and many of their writers were gifted German, Austrian, or Hungarian intellectuals of Jewish origin. They believed that if they reported the statements of the accused verbatim, including the ex-aggerations and the boasts, they would compromise the prisoners in the eyes of the German reader.

These men greatly misjudged German reaction, as many of them have done ever since, out of loyalty to Germany. The general and the soldier deserved to be punished for their plot against the state. A dignified judiciary and a perceptive press could have convinced the people of this necessity. But irony and jeers only aroused their protective instincts and intensified their latent anti-Semitism.

General Ludendorff had exulted to his wife in 1918 that the Republic was already lost because it had failed to execute him and his associates. Hitler had an equal right to triumph during the Munich trial. The judge, who was in the pay of the Republic, who had taken an oath to the Republic, displayed such utter servility to Hitler that a Reichswehr officer, who had been called in as a witness, left the court in protest.

The people's response showed the depth of their feeling, for the fortress of Landsberg—on—Lech, where Hitler was sentenced as an "honorable political prisoner," was flooded with flowers and gifts. It was a remote place, but Hitler had a constant stream of prominent visitors both from Germany and from abroad.

Looking Backward Forty Years Ago

This morning at 4:10 o'clock the second section of Missouri Pacific passenger train No. 30, from Wichita, Kas., carrying World's Fair excursionists and an extra westbound freight collided head-on just east of Warrensburg. Twenty-seven were killed outright and about fifty injured. Two of the injured died later at the M. K. & T. hospital here. The forward coach of the passenger train was telescoped and it was in it that practically all the deaths resulted.
Injured were brought to Sedalia on a relief train and the dead were taken to Warrensburg. Most all passengers on the train headed for St. Louis were from Kansas.

Time Saving Demonstration On Sewing

By Miss Church Before Club At Convention Hall

The Home Economics Extension Club Clothing Leaders spent an exceptionally profitable day with Helen Church, State Extension Clothing Specialist, last Friday at the Convention Hall. This meeting was on time-saving tricks in sewing. During the day several of the women commented, "I wish I had known that before." All during the day the things which the women did met with much enthusiasm because they were very useful ideas in home construction of garments.

Miss Church demonstrated how to mark hems for yourself, how to pin baste and baste on sewing machine, and how to place pins so that they can be sewed over. Hem finishes were included in the day's work. The catch stitch was recommended as the means of putting a hem in wooler. Articles with the use of a hem tape. Bias tape was made from small pieces of material and used in various types of trim including the French fold and cording. Miss Church demonstrated how to make cording without the use of the cording foot on the machine and how to use it for buttons and loops. She also showed how to make loops even. Crocheting belt guards with one's fingers was included in the shortcuts. An easy way to put in zippers met with the most interest in the group. One woman said, "Two weeks ago I took a zipper out four times before I got it in so it looked good. I only wish I had known how to do this then." Making substantial belts and zig-zag trims were also included in the demonstration.

Visits With Former Agent

Mrs. H. Clay Jones, who had recently visited with Mrs. Clara Montgomery, former Home Demonstration Agent in Pettis County, told the group of having seen

Cows will pay back dividends for a 6-8 weeks vacation with good feed. Good feed means hay plus about 8 pounds of grain or enough to put the cow in good shape by freshening time. Feed the dry cow the usual dairy ration plus 1/4 to 1-3 corn until a week or 10 days before freshening, then gradually replace the grain with bran until the cow gets straight bran mash for a day or two before freshening and for two or three days after. Gradually change back to the milk ration.

On Honor Roll With Reports

Five 4-H Clubs Had All Of Them In On Proper Time

On the Honor Roll for promptness in getting 4-H club records into the county Extension office go the names of the Lookout Hustlers, Flat Creek Khizes, Walnut Grove Peep club, Beaman Busy Bees and Van Natta Jolly Workers, who had every members' record in and on time. Those who were prompt with all but one record are Bunker Hill, South Abell Hustlers, Maplewood, and Arator Goodwill. All of these clubs had submitted not only their members' reports, but their secretary's report too. Prairie Ridge turned in their secretary's book and part of their members' blanks, but still have several reports to send in.

In Partial Reports
Other clubs who submitted part of the members' reports were Allen, Buncombe, Champion Striped College, Dresden, Georgetown, Ringen, Houstonia, Oak Grove, Snappy Smelser, Stokley, Smithton, Quisenberry, Lamine Go Getters, and Lovelace.

The members from these clubs who have not yet turned in their records and the members of the clubs who have reported no completions by October 1 have a few more days to get theirs in before the final record for the county is closed.

Clubs who had not submitted any records by October 1 are Hopewell, Oak Point, Camp Branch, Elder Ridge, and Eldorado. Miss Dorothy Bacon, Home Demonstration Agent says, "These boys and girls probably have been busy and just neglected their records but I think they will be in soon. We are giving the late comers a few days of grace."

Four boys and four girls from Pettis County have been recommended for the American Royal 4-H Club conference in Kansas City on October 10 to 13th. Thompson, Quisenberry; Emily Banning, Maplewood; Billy Monsees, Champion Striped College; Lorette Hayes, Prairie Ridge; Joe Taylor, Oak Point; J. D. ## To Tell Of Hot Lunches In Rural Schools

Talks At Pettis County Council Of PTA Wednesday

The serving of hot lunches in rural schools will be discussed at the meeting of the Pettis County Council of Parent-Teacher associations on Wednesday afternoon at the Fifth Street Methodist Church in Sedalia. At present different schools have adopted at least three different ways of making hot lunches available to their pupils. The government sponsored hot lunch program will be explained by representatives from schools where lunches are being served this year.

Mrs. A. J. Gregory, council president, attended the second Wartime Conference in of the Missouri Congress of Parents and Teachers, October 3-5, in Springfield as the county council delegate. She can report on items of interest reported by state and national leaders.

The Missouri Congress has been pleased with the consistent growth of rural Parent-Teacher associations in the county over a period of several years. Last year twenty-four of the county's rural schools had active Congress units. Members ranged from the minimum of ten members to twenty-four paid members. The five units reported as having the largest numbers of members were: Bennett, Bothwell, Hughesville, Mosby and Maplewood.

Have Year Books
As has been the program for several years different groups have prepared year books which have been mimeographed at the office of the county superintendent of schools, C. F. Scotten. This year these books will contain one page giving the calendar of the county council for the year.

The Wednesday afternoon session begins at one o'clock and will adjourn at 3:30. A good attendance is expected as groups not having Congress units in their schools may want to gain more information concerning the hot lunch program. Visitors are always welcomed at any of the county council meetings.

One up and Twenty to go

The first of a group of twenty-one wounded veterans grounded at the SAAF last week is loaded back into the C-47 Hospital ship on the SAAF flight line before taking off for general hospitals located farther west. The cargo of wounded, mostly paratroopers and infantrymen, included three glider pilots injured in the D-Day invasion of Southern France. The air evacuation plane was enroute to western states and stayed at the Base overnight. Seen inside the ship as they reach for the patient are S/Sgt. Fred J. Speed (left) of the Sick and Wounded department of the base hospital, and M/Sgt. Jack C. Zang, Sergeant Major of the hospital.

awarded to each of the five state winners. Special recognition certificates will be awarded to all flock owners who have kept records and who have an annual egg production of 170 eggs or more per hen.

The purpose of the contest is to encourage the use of good poultry production practices and the planning of farm poultry raising as a definite part of the farm business on a cooperative family basis. It is also intended to provide recognition for those farm families who demonstrate the operations and possibilities that a carefully conducted poultry enterprise can offer for increased farm income.

In determining the winner, the committee will take into consideration sanitation program, equipment for young stock, equipment for laying flock, egg production obtained, marketing practices followed, net returns, and records of the poultry operations.

Any poultry owner desiring to enter this contest may secure entry blanks at the county extension office, Sedalia. All entries must be submitted to the county office on or before November 10, 1944.

Why, it's the Detroit (Chrysler) Tank Arsenal where U.S. Army tanks are made.

Some have called it the tank capital of the world.

Started and finished on farmland in the fall and winter of 1940-41. It was going strong many months before we got into the war.

It doubled and redoubled its production — time and time again.

In Parliament — The voice of Winston Churchill is a Tank Town echo as he says of Rommel and the tanks: "The Lees and the Grants stopped him at El Alamein. The Sher-mans defeated him."

In Africa — Their rumble of attack on the African deserts, and their clatter of victory in the streets of Tunis and Bizerte hark back to the scene of their making, Tank Town, U.S.A.

On the Italian Beaches — They fought their way through beaches and dunes to Salerno, where the flowers that draped them in victory became a far distant Tank Town ceremony.

Its main street is all indoors—a multi-lane manufacturing highway, down through the vast arsenal building.

Its freight depot sees the big boys loaded on their flatcars—en route eventually to worldwide battlefronts.

Its schools, hospital, restaurants, police force, testing tracks—all serve Tank Town and its hustling army and civilian population as it works night and day.

The TANK TOWN story is now being told in Action, the world over. It is a story of production skill and effort at home and fighting ability and stamina abroad.
